Progress in International Reading Literacy Study (PIRLS). PIRLS is conducted every five years and assesses students' abilities to comprehend and construct meaning from different written language forms, for different purposes. GLS has been selected to participate in PIRLS Field Trial 2026. Students from selected Grade 4 sections will appear for the PIRLS Field Test on 27th February 2025 (to be confirmed). The sections selected for the test will be notified once we receive confirmation from the authorities.*

Looking forward to your support.

Wishing all the students the very best.
